WANTED

University of WA graduate, 34 year old mother of 2 infants looking for a young lady to spend the day in my apartment with my daughters as I interpret. I am interested in paying, as well as providing assistance with homeschool studies. My BA was in Spanish, but I also minored in English and Psychology. I am strong in all subjects and have worked in everything from accounting and grant management to state, county and federal work. I have no criminal history and would love to mentor a young lady and take a personal interest in her success. I also owned a bead store, and sewing supplies and would be willing to teach arts and crafts, and trade time for materials. I will be in and out of the house due to the nature of my work, but also have family 3 blocks away to support at any given moment. Please contact Dana at (509) 860-5671.

An Excellent Credit Score is 750. See Yours in Just 2 Easy Steps!
